

Images Luxury Nail Lounge Offers A $25,000 Manicure

September 9, 2015

It's true that some of the world's most expensive nail polishes can rival the prices of some very good cars, which is why it should come as no surprise that a salon in California offers a ridiculously expensive manicure that costs $25,000. As you probably suspect, the manicure in question includes precious stones as well as very expensive nail polish, which kind of justifies the asking price. The salon in question is the Images Luxury Nail Lounge, and it is located in Orange County. The establishment offers three brand new manicure services named Haute Couture, Gold Rush by Models Own and Glitz & Glamiculture, with the latter being the most expensive.

For the Glitz & Glamiculture manicure, the salon is reserved exclusively for the client, which needs to pay between $10,000 and $25,000. The customer is assisted by an expert jeweler and gets to choose from a selection of GIA-graded diamonds that are included in the treatment. Afterwards, she relaxes while sipping on delicious champagne and snacking on French Pastries. The package also comprises a Celebrity Makeover, a Luxury Facial and an hour-long massage. Definitely not a bad way to spend the day!

The relatively cheaper Gold Rush by Models Own service is based on one of the world's most expensive nail polishes, namely Gold Rush, which actually has 24k gold in its composition. This manicure costs between $2,500 and $10,000, and it also involves pastries and champagne served in private suites.

The most affordable manicure at Images Luxury Nail Lounge is the Haute Couture, which flaunts real diamond designs offered for $500 to $2,500.
